Reports that Eleven Covers were actually received at the Mysore Post office on the 12th instant but were delivered on the morning of the 14th idem & that they have been rejected under the rules.

Under rule 5 of the Rules relating to the Elections pertaining to the University Constituency published with notification P. 3923 / Legis. 12-23-21 dated 16-1-1924, Voting papers must be sent by Registered post so as to reach the Registrar on or before the appointed time. Since the above Eleven covers did not reach him in time though they were received on that day in the post office, the rejection of these votes seems to be in conformity with the rules.
